

Never Mind

Ariana Ananda

pride and ego

Always competing, comparing, competing.

Hurt ego

Hurt pride

To lose is to hurt for a while.

To win is to keep on competing, comparing, competing.

Full ego

Full pride

In the end, competing, comparing, competing

It's all in our own mind.

...it's all mine...

My house, my car, my pool,

My money, my food, my bag,

My toy, my show, my guests,

My room, my bed, my desk,

My sock, my shoe, my hat,

My plant, my stars, my tunes,

My dog, my cat, my rat,

My friend, my love, my baby,

My mom, my dad, my bro',

My keys, my mind, my heart,

My dreams, my fears, my sins,

My luck, my tears, my laughs,

My junk, my recyclable mess, my pests,

My trip, my flight, my ride,

My birth, my life, my death,

My... it's all mine...

It's all ... in my own mind ... is it not?
